

Hello Steve.

Per our conversation re. Mrs. Tammy Wilson.

I do acknowledge that I do in fact know Tammy Wilson as an employee. I was the office manager at Hodges Chiropractic and Rehabilitation in 2013, where Mrs. Wilson worked for approx. 90 days.

During that time Mrs. Wilson was unable to perform at standard performance level as an entry level receptionist. Mrs. Wilson found it difficult to maintain a dependable schedule and arrive to work in a timely and professional manner. When at the office she was unproductive, loud and rude to patients. One of my greatest concern came when I received complaints from my patients on the demeanor of how Mrs. Wilson treated the urgency and importance of their care. Patients also offered feed back into Mrs. Wilson speaking poorly about our physician as well as fraternizing. Tammy was contacting patients via her own cell phone and having contacts call her back on her phone. This is against the office policies that were given to Mrs. Wilson at the time of her employment. Patients began to drop from their care plans, as a result my end of the day totals decreased and we lost several long term patients. After coming to the decision that the front desk was not an appropriate fit for the employee, the doctor and myself had a meeting with Mrs. Wilson to let her know we would have to let her go. Mrs. Wilson began to get upset and asked if there was any way she could stay with our office. She stated she really needed to have the additional income. The doctor chose to allow the employee to work in the "Back Office". When I attempted to train Mrs. Wilson she stated to me that this was not the kind of position she was hoping for. She stated she wants to wear her cute shoes and that being on her feet all day was going to mean she wouldn't be able to look cute. After the first day in the back office, Tammy approached me to tell me, she refused to perform treatment on certain patients as she finds them disgusting. When I Tammy to then clean up the back area and we will discuss this with the doctor; Tammy replied; "I am a girlie girl and that is far beneath me". Between Mrs. Wilson's work ethic and reviewing my stat reports involving the offices OTC collection and fee slips were not being entered correctly or on some occasions not at all, I went directly to the physician. When the physician/owner and myself questioned Mrs. Wilson with all issues at hand. She became irate and stormed out. I have seen Mrs. Wilson since she left the office that day at Best Buy and Target both time Mrs. Wilson asked how the doctor was and once stated she had spoken with him on his Facebook and was hoping to come back to the office and work as she was once again in need of a job.

On a personal level outside of work I do not know Tammy well other than what Mrs. Wilson shared with me and others at the office. Tammy felt comfortable sharing her personal life at work which was highly discouraged and again, against our office policies. She would share information such as her meeting her husband while he was married, while they both worked together at the same place of employment, and how she stole him away because she was the better women. She would share things re. their intimacy as well as drunken nights and partying etc.

By all means please don't allow my experience with Mrs. Tammy Wilson to be the determining factor in your choice of direction of her employment at your office or personal friendship. My understanding is that you contacted me to gain more insight as to Mrs. Wilson's work ethics and personal behaviors with others, other then yourself. I am responding to you with facts based on my own personal knowledge and experiences with the Mrs. Tammy Wilson. Please use your own facts when determining bringing any new employee into your place employment or committing to a new relationship.

You may contact me with any questions and concerns you may have at 904-677-1744.

Sincerely,

Staci Reshen

To Whom It May Concern;

After reviewing the transcribed report from January 2014 (pg 42) it is to the best of my recollection that there was not any investigative discussion on the date of January in 2014, prior to the taping of our conversation with the exception of a brief introduction and showing me to my seat at the rectangular table. When seated, I was asked if I would mind being recorded and I replied I didn't mind. At that time the detective proceeded to pull out a small recording device and had me reintroduce myself and answer a series of questions and present the evidence that I brought with me.

I did however, provide the detective with prior evidence and statements at our original meeting in July of 2013 when I originally brought forth the fraud complaint against Richard Ray Bloom Sr. including but not limited to information re. Tammy Wilson and O [REDACTED] V [REDACTED]

I Staci Reshen State that I did report to Det. Murphy in July of 2013 re. The over billing, Medicare fraud & Stark violations that Richard Bloom D.C. was committing. I also informed him that Tammy Wilson & Dr. [REDACTED] had knowledge of the over billing & posting of procedures that were never performed by Dr. Richard Bloom.

Dr. Rhodes,

In reference to your inquiry of my knowledge of Ms. O [REDACTED] V as a former patient of Dr. Richard Blooms. Due to HIPPA I can not discuss if O [REDACTED] was or was not a treating patient at the Hodges Chiropractic and Rehabilitation. However, I can note that to my knowledge Ms. O [REDACTED] V. did come into Hodges Chiropractic and Rehabilitation often. And due to her friendship as a neighbor of Dr. Bloom's in Ocean Walk, Atlantic Beach, FL she would bring by deserts, baked goods, wine, dinners etc. I also have knowledge that off the books Ms. O [REDACTED] was often treated by Dr. Bloom at his residents in Ocean Walk. I know this because I was living with Dr. Bloom at the time this occurred. Dr. Bloom would note that he will bill O [REDACTED] 's Auto insurance for these visits as if she was to have been seen in an office setting. With no massage therapist at his residence he would then insist that he will bill for units of massage at which he would instruct our front desk receptionist Tammy Wilson to notate on a Superbill the next working day. O [REDACTED] was okay with this and Tammy would comply. I was appalled by the breach in regulations and compliance with Stark Law as well as the violation of Board rules. I reported this to detectives in Duval county in July of 2013 and it is on record.

I hope this can be of some assistance to you. If you have any further questions please feel free to contact me at 1-904-677-1744.

Please don't allow my experience or knowledge of Ms. O [REDACTED] V., Richard Bloom or Tammy Wilson to hinder any relationship you may have or had prior to this response or going forward from the date of this response. Thank You.

Sincerely,

Staci Reshen

Staci the only record
the state has is one
interview of you by Det Jason Clark in Jan 2014

You recall that was different interview
than the July 2013
with Murphy

First time was just
murphy second time
was both det
